KIDS: Set your reading goal. (If you read 30 hours over the summer, when school starts in September, you'll be invited to attend a pizza party & you'll get a certificate of recognition. This year, ALL participating readers will receive a small prize, and our top 10 readers will also get a special gift card from Books Are Magic, and be featured in the school paper.) My reading goal for this summer ______ total hours.

KIDS & PARENTS: Get your family and friends to be your summer reading sponsors. Their donations go straight to our PTA and support literacy activities at PS 29 – no donation is too small, every dollar donated will make a real difference!

Have your sponsors write their names and their amount pledged, on the back of this form. They can easily donate online (via: ps29pta.kindful.com – select "Summer Reading Challenge" from the drop down menu when making a donation pledge, and please indicate your student reader's name) or via check, which you can put in an envelope, with your student reader's name on the front.

KIDS ... start reading! As soon as school ends, every time you read, write down the date, the book, the minutes read, and have a parent initial the sheet. (And remember, if you read and log 30 minutes a day? You'll easily hit the 30 hours required to come to the pizza party in September.) There is a great list of suggested reads up on the website if you're looking for inspiration.

PARENTS: Submit your reading log! You have from the first day of school until Friday 9/20 to turn your log in. (Though you stop recording once school starts). Drop your form (and any checks) in the big box in the PTA office, and record that you've done so in the notebook that will be next to it. Easy as 1-2-3! All forms and donations must be turned in by 9/20. We will contact you by 10/1, via your child's classroom teacher and via your email address, to let you know about the pizza party – please make sure you fill out all of the info at the top of this sheet – we don't want any readers to miss out on the celebration!
